STATE NEWS.

Work on the railroad in Washington county has been resumed.

The Grand Jury of Madison county returned fifty-two indictments last week. Mostly for petty offenses.

There are nineteen Brandy Distilleries in Lincoln, two in Boyle, forty-seven in Pulaski, and one hundred in Russell.

The Lexington papers say that great quantities of counterfeit fractional currency are in circulation in that vicinity.

The Grand Lodge of Good Templars will meet in Frankfort, on Tuesday, the 8th, instead of Louisville as was announced.

An effort is being made to form a new county of portions of Carter, Lewis, and Elliot counties. Olive Hill is to be the county seat.

Mr. Alexander, of Christiansburg, while digging a well, a few days since, found a live locust at a depth of five feet from the surface.

The Rag-Tag and Bob-Tails will give another grand parade in Lexington on Saturday 20th. The Phantoms will make their appearance also.

Governor Leslie has appointed Hon. Willis B. Machin, of Lyon county, Senator, to fill the unexpired term of Hon. Garrett Davis, deceased.

The Paducah Knickerbocker has a sweet potato three feet seven inches long, and two inches thick. Pretty good root that is, but no doubt Grubbs has a larger one. —Observer and Reporter.

Governor Leslie has commuted the sentence of Valentine Rabbit, who was to have been hung last Friday, at Louisville, for the murder of Jacob Rein last fall, to imprisonment for life.

A terrible tornado visited Christian county in the vicinity of Hopkinsville, on Saturday last, sweeping buildings, fences and trees before it. The estimated loss of property is over $100,000.

The trial of James and Benjamin Johnson—two brothers—for the killing of Mr. Edwards in Jackson county Ky., on the 28th of March last, was concluded at Richmond Wednesday, the 25th inst., the jury returning a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Major Wood C. Collins, of Montgomery county, has leased for ninety-nine years 12,000 acres of some of the finest and best coal land in America, right in the heart of the mineral region of Kentucky, and on the proposed line of the Cincinnati, Covington and Cumberland Gap railroad.

The Kentucky Library drawing was postponed till December the 7th. This will change the luck of a great many, but the change may possibly be for the better. We believe the postponement gives general satisfaction in this vicinity. Our sentiments are anything to promote the interests of the enterprise.

During the week of the Bourbon Fair, the wine, steel, broom, and bucket of the Bethlehem Christian church, five miles South of Paris, was stolen. It appeared from luster matches and kindling in the church that the second had attempted to burn the church, so as to remove all idea that the articles had been stolen. —True Kentuckian.

A terrible affair occurred at Paris, Ky., last Saturday night about half-past ten o'clock. A party of men went to the house of Henry Weck, a German saloon keeper, and fired some eight or ten shots into the door, one of which passed through the head of an infant child of Weck, resulting in instant death. Thos. Dillion, Fred Mullinger, and four others were arrested and lodged in jail.

The funeral of Hon. Garrett Davis took place at Paris, Wednesday, at eleven o'clock, and was largely attended. The services were held at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, and a sermon was preached by Bishop Geo. D. Cummins. Business of every kind was suspended in Paris, and all united in paying the last tribute of respect to their late respected and distinguished fellow-citizen.

The Cynthia News gives an account of woman whipping in that county, which is a new form of settling neighborhood difficulties. A Mrs. Pugh complained to a Mr. Hiram Carr that his horse was giving her much trouble, whereupon the valiant Mr. Carr broke out in a most terrible manner, cursing her with horrible oaths, and then with a one-eyed club, some six or eight feet long, beat her in a most unmerciful manner. Her arms, which were exposed to view, were black and blue, and she said that her person was covered with more bruises than her arms. She was struck some fifteen licks.

The Georgetown Times says: "The suggestion that the people of the counties through which the several routes of the Cincinnati Southern railroad have been surveyed hold a convention at some convenient point and agree upon some plan of action, guaranteeing the right of way on any and all the proposed routes, but refusing to give bonuses, and discouraging any effort looking to the bidding against each other for the location of the road, is meeting with very general favor. The trustees of the road will have no difficulty in getting the right of way through any county through which they may wish to pass. They ought not to ask for anything more."

The canvass in Pennsylvania closed last Saturday, under the law forbidding political meetings within ten days of the election, with every assurance of a Liberal triumph.

A. M. Swope, Esq.

We have been requested to publish the following notice, and we do so with pleasure:

PUBLIC SPEAKING.
"A. M. Swope, Esq., of Paris Kentucky, Assistant Elector for the State on the Republican ticket; will address the people on next county court day, at two o'clock, P. M., in the courthouse at Stanford."

Mr. Swope is a native of this county, and formerly a good Democrat. He has but recently gone over to the enemy, and we are astonished to learn this fact. However, many of his old friends will be pleased to hear him. There will be lively times here on the 14th of October (county court day) as Mr. R. C. Warren, the assistant Democratic elector for this Congressional District, has an appointment to speak here on the same day, and there must be an equal division of time.

Mr. Swope will find in Dick Warren a worthy opponent. Let every body come to town on that day, for there will be various other attractions besides the gladiatorial combat between these two valiant young knights of the political arena. The ladies particularly invited to attend. "Dick" is a married man, and "Armp" ought to be, for he is a handsome fellow, and destined to make a "large mark" in the world. We look forward to this debate with many anticipations of pleasure; and we hope too to see the courthouse crowded with the bone and sinew, and the "fair sex" of this region.

GRANT'S MOST FAMOUS SPEECHES.
Let the Public compare these with Dr. Greeley's Speeches.

PRESIDENT GRANT'S SPEECH TO THE PEOPLE OF ALLEGANY CITY.
Delivered Oct. 1871 in response to an address by the Mayor.

It affords me great pleasure to witness the honors conferred upon me in this reception. I hope that I shall ever, in the administration of the affairs of the Government, receive the approval of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, which shall ever be my effort. I thank you for this reception.

PRESIDENT GRANT'S GREAT SPEECH ON THE OPENING OF THE EUROPEAN AND NORTH AMERICAN RAILWAY, IN FULL.
Delivered in Bangor, Maine, Oct. 1871.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I congratulate you and the people of the State of Maine, and the nation at large, upon the occasion which has brought us all here, as well as at other places I have visited. It is a matter in which you are particularly interested; and the nation at large, I believe, is equally interested with you. I hope the railroad may prove to you and to all that is expected of it, improving and building up a friendly feeling between us, the people of the same language with ourselves, who, I think are equally interested in the preservation of the most cordial friendship.

PRESIDENT GRANT'S SPEECH TO THE CITIZENS OF PORTLAND ME.
Delivered Oct. 20, 1871.

I have a vivid recollection of visiting your city six years ago. This is the second time I have been in your city, and am much pleased with the reception here, as well as at other places I have visited in your State. If I do not often hear from you, I shall not make many more visits here before I shall be quite an old man.

PRESIDENT GRANT'S SPEECH AT THE NEWARK EXPOSITION.
Delivered Sept. 19, 1872.

Gentlemen: I am happy to be here to night to witness this display of Newark's manufactures. Your far-famed city has done well, her manufacturers have an influence upon the importation of foreign manufactures.

PRESIDENT GRANT'S GREAT SPEECH AT NEWARK.
Delivered at Gov. Ward's in response to a Serenade Sept. 29, 1872. Heretofore imperfectly given—now reported in full.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I could not but feel grateful for the reception I have received at the hands of the citizens of Newark and of New Jersey today. I had the pleasure of visiting the State Fair near Elizabeth, where I saw little children and people. I was at your exposition to-night, and again people, but little of what they had there to see. I hope to see to-morrow what I went to-night to see.

Political Speaking.
A. M. Swope, of Paris Kentucky, will address the citizens of Lincoln county, upon the political issues of the day, in Stanford at 2 o'clock P. M., on Monday, October 14, 1872, County Court day.

VALENTINE RABBIT, who was to have been hung at Louisville on the 26th, received a commutation of his sentence to imprisonment for life, just before he was executed. —Lexington Statesman.

Why in the duce then, did they "execute" him? That sheriff should be looked after.

CARRY the news to Beat Butler, that the down-trodden South, which, he once over-ran, is rising from the shackles he placed upon her, and Georgia responds to the outrage with a majority of 30,000 for Liberalism and Democracy.

CARRY the news to Ulys, Georgia's compliments of 30,000 majority for the old white hat's principles.
